

STUDY INDIA PROGRAM (SIP)

SHIV NADAR
UNIVERSITY (SNU)
1 AUGUST - 31 AUGUST 2019

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

The SIP is designed to introduce international students to a range of disciplines with the aim of providing them with an overview of India's complex political, historical, social, and cultural past and present.

The program offers a rich mix of classroom learning and field visits designed to provide students with academic and experiential learning. Students are also encouraged to audit lectures in their own discipline(s), participate in on-campus social and cultural events (details in program flyer), and interact with SNU students and faculty.

The program is hosted by the School of Humanities and Social Sciences (<https://shssci.snu.edu.in/>). The School has Departments of Arts, Communication, Design, Economics, English, History, International Relations and Governance Studies and Sociology as well as has the Centre for Public Affairs and Critical Theory (C-PACT).

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- Lectures on India's history, society, culture, literature, politics, international relations, economy, art, museum culture, and social and physical geography.
- Introduction to the challenges faced by a global south country, such as globalization, global warming, environment, social justice, gender equality, and population density.
- Total classroom contact hours – 90 (Approx)
- Field visits – 25 hours (Approx)
- Option of auditing the regular classroom courses from the School of Natural Sciences, Humanities and Social Sciences, Management and Entrepreneurship, and Engineering at the university.
- Visits to Taj Mahal, National Museum, Historical Monuments in Delhi, River basins of Yamuna and Hindon, and Mathura Museum.
- Access to academic and sports facilities on campus.

PROGRAM FEE - CANADIAN DOLLARS 2200/-

Program fee includes: Tuition fee; Access to campus amenities including WiFi, indoor and outdoor sports facilities, library etc.; On campus, air-conditioned, accommodation on a twin-sharing basis – with attached bathroom (to be shared between the roommates); Basic meals (vegetarian and non-vegetarian options available) for the duration of the program – breakfast, lunch, dinner (On campus only); Excursion to Mathura and Agra (Taj Mahal)- travel and hotel accommodation; Local transportation to Delhi for field visits, Airport transfers.

Exclusions – Anything not mentioned above

Contact: Prof. Sukeshi Kamra ,OIN Academic Director

Email: Sukeshi.Kamra@carleton.ca